Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Organization Mission

Founded in 1979, OneJustice® (the Public Interest Clearinghouse dba OneJustice) resolves legal problems by removing barriers to justice. We support a statewide network of 100+ nonprofit legal organizations that serve over 275,000 Californians facing legal problems relating to basic life necessities. OneJustice achieves our mission by building the management, governance, and leadership of nonprofit legal organizations, increasing volunteerism in the legal community, and building a statewide access to justice network, while also providing staff and infrastructure support to a partner nonprofit, the Legal Aid Association of California.

OneJustice strengthens nonprofits, leaders, volunteers, and networks to meet the legal needs of underserved Californians and create one justice system that works equally for all. Needless suffering from solvable legal problems should not be an option. With resources stretched thin statewide, we provide critical skills, training, resources and support to 100+ nonprofit legal organizations, law schools, law firms and businesses and thousands of lawyers and law students to help them stretch capacity to assist the up to 8 million at-risk low-income people to resolve pressing legal problems. Our programs strengthen the emergency safety net to meet an organization, and better serve clients and communities. As a result, the nonprofit legal organizations become better managed, more adaptive, and achieve higher impact.

In this period of declining revenue and increased demand for their services, OneJustice ensures nonprofit legal organizations have the business skills they need to survive and thrive in California's complex and competitive nonprofit sector.

Last year OneJustice provided technical assistance and consulting on nonprofit management to over 65 legal services nonprofits, including 24 trainings for over 245 participants. During the last year, OneJustice launched the Executive Director Evaluation Project. This project works with Board of Directors and their Executive Directors to facilitate a comprehensive and meaningful evaluation at the highest level of the organization. OneJustice also continued the first project in the country to assist the boards of nonprofit legal organizations with improved governance practices through training and a comprehensive self-assessment process.

Fifteen organizations have participated in the Board Training and Self-Assessment project, resulting in increased fundraising ability, improved board recruitment, and higher levels of board engagement. In June 2011, OneJustice's intensive 10-month program on nonprofit leadership and management graduated 23 Fellows in its second year and accepted 24 Fellows into the second class. Finally, OneJustice increased the staff attorney capacity at seven nonprofit legal organizations around the state by serving as the centralized administrator for 15 post-graduate legal fellowships, allowing those nonprofits to hire new attorneys to serve more clients.

OneJustice also continued its existing portfolio of successful programs in this area, including coordination of the annual Northern California Public Interest/Public Sector Careers Day, one of the largest public interest and government career fairs in Pro Bono Initiative: Expanding Legal Help for Californians in Need by Increasing Volunteerism in the Legal Community ($292,314)

OneJustice provides training, consulting, and resources to support and promote innovation and excellence in the pro bono efforts of nonprofit legal organizations, law schools, major law firms, and corporate legal departments. OneJustice also develops and supports the expansion of innovative pro bono delivery models, including focusing on the needs of nonprofits and volunteers serving rural Californians. These projects and services increase the legal help for Californians in need by increasing volunteerism in the legal community and ensuring more effective engagement of volunteers by the nonprofits.

In March 2012, OneJustice convened the "Northern California Pro Bono Regional Meeting," bringing together those responsible for pro bono management at nonprofits, law schools, law firms, and corporate legal departments in the region. OneJustice also continued to provide staff support to the Southern California and Bay Area Pro Bono Managers Groups, bringing together the nonprofit leaders responsible for managing pro bono programs to share resources, best practices, and innovative models. OneJustice also managed ww.CAProBono.org, the statewide website dedicated to supporting pro bono efforts around the state, as well as the SoCal Pro Bono Center website, linking Southern California attorneys to local volunteer opportunities.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b - Program Service Accomplishments

OneJustice's Justice Bus® Project organized rural service learning trips, taking groups of law students and lawyers from urban law schools and law firms to rural areas to provide vital legal services to clients in partnership with the local legal services organizations. OneJustice's Law Student Pro Bono Program continued to match law students in the Bay Area and Sacramento with volunteer projects at legal aid agencies, court-based programs, and social service providers. This program not only expanded the services available to clients, it also ensured that the future leaders of the legal community, whether in the private or nonprofit sector, experience a personal connection to meeting the legal needs of the underserved.

Statewide Access to Justice Network: Expanding Legal Help for Californians in Need by Building a Statewide Network ($91,818)

Acting as a catalyst on access to justice issues for the California legal community, OneJustice leads statewide planning efforts and collaborative projects to strengthen the capacity of the legal aid community to provide more effective and efficient services for those in need. OneJustice mobilizes all segments of the legal community, including the Courts, legislature, private bar, State and local bars, and the nonprofit sector, in support of the statewide legal services delivery system, which functions as a vital safety net for low-income, elderly and disabled Californians. This year OneJustice provided professional and administrative staff support to the "California Civil Justice Crisis" hearings project, convening four public hearings around the state in the fall/winter of 2011 to demonstrate the fundamental role of both the courts and legal assistance in our society and explore the devastating effects, especially for low-income Californians, of chronic underfunding and recent budget cuts. The hearings were co-sponsored by the

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d - Other Program Services Description

California Chamber of Commerce, the California Commission on Access to Justice, and the State Bar of California. OneJustice also created video footage of the hearings and a final report with key findings and recommendations, which have been used by the state legislature and the Bench Bar Coalition. More information is found at www.CAHearings.org.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b - Form 990 Review Process

OneJustice's Form 990 was reviewed by the organization's governing body before it was filed. The process was as follows: OneJustice's Finance Committee reviewed the Form 990 with the Executive Director and Deputy Director in early December 2012. After approval by the Finance Committee for submission, the Form 990 was distributed via email to the entire Board of Directors for Board members to raise any questions or concerns. The Form was then submitted.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts

OneJustice's conflict of interest policy requires Board members and key employees to disclose, on an annual basis, any interests that could rise to conflicts. Board members and key employees are given a disclosure form each year that asks them to disclose any conflicts, as defined by the policy. The policy also requires any Director who is affiliated with a prospective vendor, paid consultant, or grantee to abstain from voting with regard to disclose that affiliation and abstain from voting with regard to any transaction with financial consequences to OneJustice involved that person or entity and, after disclosing his or her interest, to leave the room during discussion and while the vote is taken. At Board meetings, the Chair routinely reminds Board members about the policy and the conflicts requirement before any votes are taken involving transactions with financial consequences to OneJustice. The minutes reflect the Board's actions were in compliance with the policy when any such votes are taken.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a - Compensation Review & Approval Process for CEO, Exec. Dir., or Top Mgtment

The OneJustice Board delegated the executive compensation review and approval to the Executive Committee, which consists of the Chair, Vice Chair, Secretary and Treasurer of the Board, all of whom are independent persons. The Executive Director was not involved in the compensation review and approval process. The Executive Committee created an online survey completed by Board members and staff to evaluate the Executive's performance in all areas of job responsibility. The Committee also reviewed comparable executive compensation packages in the broader nonprofit sector, as well as the legal services nonprofit sector more specifically. The Committee reviewed comparability data from several sources, including but not limited to: 2011 Bay Area Legal Nonprofit Compensation Study; 2010 Charity Navigator Metro Market Study; 2010 Opportunity Knocks Wage Study; and a GuideStar article on What Boards Need to Know about Executive Compensation. The Chair of the Board documented and reported to the full board at its regular meeting about the Committee's process, the review of the Executive's compensation package as compared to other sources, and the evaluation of the Executive's job performance. The Chair also memorialized the performance evaluation in a written document that was signed by both the Chair and the Executive.
