OneJustice is exempt from taxation under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) and California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 23701d.

Generally accepted accounting principles provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by OneJustice in its federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. OneJustice's returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three and four years, respectively, after they are filed.

OneJustice also conducted 5 trainings for nearly ninety legal aid nonprofit staff through the state. OneJustice completed the sixth year of the Executive Fellowship, an intensive 10-month program on nonprofit leadership and management, with 19 Fellows graduating in June 2016. OneJustice increased the staff attorney capacity at four legal services nonprofits around the state by serving as the centralized administrator for 11 post-graduate legal fellowships, allowing those nonprofits to hire new attorneys to serve more clients. OneJustice also continued to coordinate the annual Northern California Public Interest/Public Sector Careers Day, one of the largest public interest and government career fairs in the nation. The 2016 Careers Day was attended by more than 139 employees and more than 485 law students.

amnesty, criminal record clearance, and housing legal assistance.

OneJustice also continued its work in the collaborative "California Pro Bono Training Institute" project to develop and distribute 19 training video modules on areas of law that were then accessed by 307 volunteers to prepare for pro bono opportunities.

With over 30 years experience as the backbone for California's civil justice infrastructure, OneJustice's programs work within the existing service delivery system to close the greatest gaps in legal aid, while also testing new models and piloting new approaches to lead to sector-wide transformation. OneJustice works on a national level as a thought partner and resource, as well as representing the interests of California's legal aid sector in efforts to change policy and systems. OneJustice also supports the import and export of creative ideas by packaging its own approaches and projects for replication in other states and by identifying effective practices from outside California.
