

2018 Fall Webinars for Legal Aid Staff

Modern legal aid organizations need a broad range of skills to excel in achieving their mission. In this series of lunchtime trainings, OneJustice's Healthy Nonprofits Program offers practical training in three important areas – using data to increase impact, designing effective meetings and supporting professional development. OneJustice designed these webinars especially for legal aid supervisors and teams!

Using Census data to understand client needs and increase your impact

October 25, 2018, 12-1 PM (PT)

Legal aid organizations are increasingly expected to be data savvy. But how do you start developing those skills in your organization? Through a detailed case study focusing on language access, this webinar provides a practical introduction to using Census data to increase your impact.

Meeting design for inclusion and creativity

November 15, 2018, 12-1 PM (PT)

Meetings are ground zero for organizational culture. Learn how to foster innovation and inclusion through meeting and agenda design. This webinar will feature interdisciplinary approaches for opening and closing meetings; eliciting input and feedback; and tools for developing a shared vision. To register, please click here.

Creating Tight, Mission-Driven Roles, Goals, and Professional Development for Yourself and your Team

December 14, 2018, 12-1 PM (PT)

For legal aid supervisors, learn how to define roles, co-create objectives, and professionally develop your staff. For supervisees, also learn how to apply these concepts as a leader in your and your organization's success. This training focuses specifically on writing "SMART" goals, navigating accountability systems (e.g. "MOCHA" and "DARCI"), and developing competencies to advance the legal aid mission on a legal aid budget. To register, please click here.

These webinars are free for IOLTA organizations in California.
