Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by OneJustice in its federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. OneJustice's returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three and four years, respectively, after they are filed.

services organizations, law firms, corporations, bar associations, courts, and other nonprofit organizations. OneJustice also hosted webinars for the California Joint Pro Bono Manager Forum, a quarterly program addressing emerging needs in pro bono and featuring highlighted pro bono projects from around the state and country.

Throughout FY 20-21, OneJustice convened and facilitated meetings for the Bay Area and Southern California Pro Bono Managers groups. Given the evolving challenges and needs stemming from the COVID pandemic and shift to remote services, OneJustice provided increased support for the regional groups, which involved more frequent meetings, additional avenues for communication and shared resources. During this period, working with our partners, we provided services through our redesigned remote legal clinics model. We staffed 32 free legal clinics with pro bono volunteers through the Justice Bus Network, IMPACT LA, Rural Justice Collaborative, Justice Bus, Justice Plane, Inland Empire, and Access to Asylum projects, serving 234 individuals. We also shared our Remote Clinic Toolkit, which we developed in 2020 to help legal services organizations pivot to a remote service model; the toolkit has now been shared with over 120 organizations across 25 states.

OneJustice also continued its work in the collaborative Pro Bono Training Institute. The Pro Bono Training Institute created 19 new disaster relief training modules, 2 commercial lease training modules, and 3 small claims training modules in FY 20-21.

management, with 30 Fellows graduating in June 2021.

The Healthy Nonprofits Program offered its Organizational Change Accelerators in FY 20-21, which is a capacity-building fellowship program that provides training and coaching critical to increasing the efficiency and effectiveness of legal services organizations. During FY 20-21, OneJustice helped 15 staff from 11 organizations improve their program capacities in two key areas: (1) Pro Bono Program Design and Management; and (2) Program Evaluation in Legal Aid. Additionally, FY 20-21 saw an expansion of the Capacity Building Academy, which aims to increase the capacity of legal services organizations serving rural immigrant communities through an online training program. OneJustice enrolled and taught 2 cohorts comprising more than 35 of California's emerging legal aid leaders on: (1) Nonprofit Management, including nonprofit budgeting, team and project management, innovation principles, and the importance of equity and inclusion; and (2) Pro Bono Management, including volunteer recruitment, training, supervision, and cultural humility.

In FY 20-21, the Healthy Nonprofits Program's Californians for Legal Aid project supported public policies that increase access to legal services for low-income Californians in the following ways: staff contacted all offices of California's federal Members of Congress in Washington, DC, to educate them about the services that legal aid programs provide to constituents in their districts and urged their support for increased federal funding for legal aid; mobilized the Californians for Legal Aid network on the federal appropriations process for Legal Services Corporation funding, and authored multiple policy advocacy letters on state and federal issues. In addition to contacting important legislative offices, staff met with eight federal offices, four state offices, and one local office to further educate them on the importance of robust funding for legal services in California.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b:

OneJustice's Form 990 is reviewed by the organization's governing body before it is filed. The process is as follows: OneJustice's Audit Committee reviews the Form 990 with the CEO. After approval by the Audit Committee for submission, the Form 990 is distributed via email to the entire Board of Directors for Board members to raise any questions or concerns. The Form is then submitted.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

OneJustice's conflict of interest policy requires Board members and key employees to disclose, on an annual basis, any interests that could rise to conflicts. Board members and key employees are given a disclosure form each year that asks them to disclose any conflicts, as defined by the policy. The policy also requires any Director who is affiliated with a prospective vendor, paid consultant, or grantee to abstain from voting with regard to any transaction with financial consequences to OneJustice involved that person or entity and, after disclosing his or her interest, to leave the room during discussion and while the vote is taken. At Board meetings, the Chair routinely reminds Board members about the policy and the conflicts requirement before any votes are taken involving transactions with financial consequences to OneJustice. The minutes reflect the Board's

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15a:

The OneJustice Board delegated to its Executive Committee the review of executive compensation. The Executive Committee is comprised of board members, all of whom are independent persons. The CEO was not involved in the compensation review and approval process.

In its evaluation, the Executive Committee reviewed comparable executive compensation packages in the broader nonprofit sector, as well as the legal services nonprofit sector more specifically. The Board reaffirmed the Committee's determinations about executive compensation when it approved the organization's budget. The Board ensures on an ongoing basis that the CEO's pay continues to abide by market standards.
