Part X, Line 2:

OneJustice is exempt from taxation under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) and California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 23701d.

Generally accepted accounting principles provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by OneJustice in its federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. OneJustice's returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three and four years, respectively, after they are filed.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a, Program Service Accomplishments:

practices and innovative uses of technology to expand pro bono services to underserved communities. For example, OneJustice's Remote Clinic Toolkit, developed in 2020 to help legal services organizations pivot to a remote service model, has been shared with over 120 legal services organizations across 25 states. OneJustice also partnered with rural legal aid organizations in California to increase the community's awareness of legal clinics, recruit and train volunteers, and manage and evaluate legal clinics.

Through its Pro Bono Training Institute, OneJustice trained over 1,500 individuals from law firms, legal aid organizations, law schools, and universities on critical legal topics, including housing, asylum, and disaster relief. Since its inception, the Pro Bono Training Institute has strengthened the skills and expertise of more than 11,500 volunteers.

OneJustice offered a training program for volunteers who have recently joined or are interested in joining the boards of legal aid organizations. Training topics included: alignment with organizational mission, vision, and theory of change; advancing diversity, equity, and inclusion; board governance and recruitment; and financial oversight.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b, Program Service Accomplishments:

and facilitated the sharing of best practices through leadership retreats.

OneJustice offered training programs for legal services organizations to maximize the impact of legal services, including consumer protection and immigration legal services. In addition, OneJustice offered programming to legal services organizations across California on essential topics, such as effective data practices in homelessness prevention, program evaluation, budgeting and financial management, advancing equity in board leadership, and leadership succession planning.

OneJustice supported public policies that increase access to legal services for low-income Californians. OneJustice advocated on state and federal bills that would impact low-income Californians. In addition, OneJustice advocated for the importance of civil legal aid with legislators.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b:

OneJustice's Form 990 is reviewed by the organization's governing body before it is filed. The process is as follows: OneJustice's Audit Committee reviews the Form 990 with the CEO. After approval by the Audit Committee for submission, the Form 990 is distributed via email to the entire Board of Directors for Board members to raise any questions or concerns. The Form is then submitted.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

OneJustice's conflict of interest policy requires Board members and key employees to disclose, on an annual basis, any interests that could rise to conflicts. Board members and key employees are given a disclosure form each year that asks them to disclose any conflicts, as defined by the policy.

The policy also requires any Director who is affiliated with a prospective vendor, paid consultant, or grantee to abstain from voting with regard to any transaction with financial consequences to OneJustice involved that person or entity and, after disclosing the Director's interest, to leave the room during discussion and while the vote is taken. At Board meetings, the Chair routinely reminds Board members about the policy and the conflicts requirement before any votes are taken involving transactions with financial consequences to OneJustice. The minutes reflect the Board's actions were in compliance with the policy when any such votes are taken.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15a:

The OneJustice Board delegated to its Executive Committee the review of executive compensation. The Executive Committee is comprised of board members, all of whom are independent persons. The CEO was not involved in the compensation review and approval process.

In its evaluation, the Executive Committee reviewed comparable executive compensation packages in the broader nonprofit sector, as well as the legal services nonprofit sector more specifically. The Board reaffirmed the Committee's determinations about executive compensation when it approved the organization's budget. The Board ensures on an ongoing basis that the CEO's pay continues to abide by market standards.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19:

OneJustice provides the financial information from its annual audit and the Form 990 to the public online at www.onejustice.org. OneJustice also states on the website that it will share the conflict of interest policy, whistleblower policy, audit and Form 990 directly with anyone who submits
