Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b:
 OneJustice's Form 990 is reviewed by the organization's governing body before it is filed. The process is as follows: OneJustice's Audit Committee reviews the Form 990 with the CEO. After approval by the Audit Committee for submission, the Form 990 is distributed via email to the entire Board of Directors for Board members to raise any questions or concerns. The Form is then submitted.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:
 OneJustice's conflict of interest policy requires Board members and key employees to disclose, on an annual basis, any interests that could rise to conflicts. Board members and key employees are given a disclosure form each year that asks them to disclose any conflicts, as defined by the policy. The policy also requires any Director who is affiliated with a prospective vendor, paid consultant, or grantee to abstain from voting with regard to any transaction with financial consequences to OneJustice involved that person or entity and, after disclosing the Director's interest, to leave the room during discussion and while the vote is taken. At Board meetings, the Chair routinely reminds Board members about the policy and the conflicts requirement before any votes are taken involving transactions with financial consequences to OneJustice. The minutes reflect the Board's actions were in compliance with the policy when any such votes are taken.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15a:
 The OneJustice Board delegated to its Executive Committee the review of executive compensation. The Executive Committee is comprised of board members, all of whom are independent persons. The CEO was not involved in the compensation review and approval process.

In its evaluation, the Executive Committee reviewed comparable executive compensation packages in the broader nonprofit sector, as well as the legal services nonprofit sector more specifically. The Board reaffirmed the Committee's determinations about executive compensation when it approved the organization's budget. The Board ensures on an ongoing basis that the CEO's pay continues to abide by market standards.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19:
 OneJustice provides the financial information from its annual audit and the Form 990 to the public online at www.onejustice.org. OneJustice also states on the website that it will share the conflict of interest policy and whistleblower policy directly with anyone who submits an email request for the documents. OneJustice's Form 990 and audited financial statements are available on Candid; OneJustice has also earned the Gold Seal from Candid in recognition of its commitment to transparency.
